OREGON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE FACTS

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IN OREGON

- Between 1997 and 2003, 123 homicides occurred among Oregonians age 12 and older, due to intimate partner violence.¹
- Between 1997 and 2003, 46% of female homicide victims and 4% of male homicide victims were killed by intimate partners.²
- A 2001-2002 survey conducted in Oregon showed that one in ten women experienced intimate partner violence in the five years preceding the survey-more than 85,000 women.³
- In Oregon, 2,988 adult survivors of domestic violence and/or sexual assault were sheltered in emergency shelters, motels and safe homes in 2004.⁴
- There were 10,135 requests for shelter by adult victims of domestic violence in Oregon that could not be met in 2004.⁵

OREGON COALITION AGAINST DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE⁶

- The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence is a feminist organization made up of programs across the state that serve victims and survivors of domestic and sexual violence.
- Their mission is to raise awareness about violence against women and children and to work towards non-violence through advocacy, public policy, resource development, and social change.

SEXUAL ASSAULT IN OREGON

- One out of every six adult women in Oregon has been the victim of forcible rape at some point in her lifetime. This amounts to about 230,000 adult women total.⁷
- 7% of Oregon's 8th grade females and 10% of 11th grade females have been physically forced to have sex.⁸
- The lifetime prevalence of rape among adult women in Oregon was somewhat higher than the estimate for the nation as a whole in 2003.⁹

CHALLENGES

- The estimated costs of intimate partner violence in Oregon, a state currently facing serious economic problems due to high unemployment rates and slow economic growth, exceed $50 million each year.¹⁰
- Domestic Violence service providers in the large, rural counties in the eastern half of the state of Oregon face many challenges common to rural areas, especially underreporting.¹¹

NATIONAL COALITION AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

The Public Policy Office of the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV) is a national leader in the effort to create and influence Federal legislation that positively affects the lives of domestic violence victims and children. We work closely with advocates at the local, state and national level to identify the issues facing domestic violence victims, their children and the people who serve them and to develop a legislative agenda to address these issues. NCADV welcomes you to join us in our effort to end domestic violence.
