Addressing the Link Between Violence and Increased Risk for HIV: A Skills Enhancement Guide

Module I
Introduction to the Training Series
Goal of training series

• Build the capacity of IPV and HIV/AIDS counselors/advocates to:
  o Identify the risk for HIV and presence of IPV among women clients.
  o Integrate risk reduction and safety planning.
  o Link women to appropriate services.
Training modules

- Module I - Introduces the training series.
- Module II - Covers the link between violence and women’s increased risk for HIV.
- Module III - Covers basic information about:
  - Part I: Intimate partner violence.
  - Part II: HIV/AIDS and HIV prevention.
- Module IV - Covers client-centered approach to service delivery.
What participants will learn

• Research demonstrating the link between IPV and HIV/AIDS.
• Basic information on VAW, IPV, HIV/AIDS, and HIV prevention.
• Current data about IPV.
• Current data about HIV/AIDS.
• Federal, state, and local IPV and HIV laws and guidelines.
• How to identify HIV risk behaviors.
What participants will learn (cont’d)

• How to identify IPV.
• How to integrate risk reduction plan into safety planning.
• Potential barriers to providing integrated violence and HIV/AIDS services.
• How to develop shared resources and referrals.
• What client-centered integrated IPV/HIV services looks like.