

DONATION ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Thank You for Donating Your Used Cell Phones!

The National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV) is devoted to the elimination of domestic violence in urban and rural areas, across all racial, religious and economic groups. Proceeds from the collection and sale of deactivated cell phones help fund our mission to end violence in the home. The collection of deactivated cell phones for this purpose has literally saved hundreds of lives.

For more information, visit www.ncadv.org.

ReCellular, Inc., is proud to partner with the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence. As the world leader in electronics sustainability, ReCellular is committed to recycling all electronic waste to contribute to a cleaner, healthier environment. As such, ReCellular has a strict “zero landfill” policy: cell phones that cannot be reused will be safely recycled. www.recellular.com.

NCADV was founded in 1978 and is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, Federal Tax ID 91-1081344. NCADV makes no determination of the value of wireless telephones donated to this program. Please consult your financial advisor concerning the tax effects of your gift. NCADV provided no goods or services in consideration for your donation.

As a record of your donation, please complete the section below and retain this letter for your tax purposes.
